

Vacancy: Medical Secretary of the European Specialty Examination in Nephrology (ESEN) Examining Board

The Renal Association, the Federation of the Royal Colleges of Physicians of the UK, the Renal Section and Board of the UEMS, the European Renal Association and the European Dialysis and Transplant Association are seeking to appoint a new Medical Secretary for the Examining Board for the European Specialty Examination in Nephrology (ESEN).

The successful applicant will support the Chair in running the ESEN to ensure that all academic objectives are met; assist the Chair in ensuring that the ESEN meets the standards set by the General Medical Council; be responsible for the production and accuracy of all documentary and regulatory matters relating to the SCE; assist the Chair in advising the SCE Steering Group on policy and academic matters; attend the ESEN Standard Setting Group; support MRCP(UK) in its work in developing and delivering the exams both within the UK and internationally.

A full list of the post's responsibilities is set out in: The Responsibilities and Duties of the Medical Secretary of the Specialty Certificate Examining Board. In addition a copy of the remit and responsibilities of the examining board can be found on the MRCP\(UK\) website.

Applicants should meet the following criteria to be eligible to apply:

- hold the MRCP(UK) or an equivalent postgraduate diploma
- be practising as a specialist in renal medicine, and a member or fellow of one of the three Colleges
- be registered with a license to practise and in good standing on the GMC specialist register
- be actively engaged in the training of junior doctors in the UK (or within the last two years)
- be up-to-date as appropriate with relevant national guidelines, CPD requirements, employer's equality and diversity training and appraisal process

Experience of examining board membership is desirable.

The tenure of appointment is three years initially with the possibility of extension for a further two years subject to approval from the Associate Medical Director for Written Examinations.

This is a non-salaried position though all reasonable expenses and travel costs will be met by MRCP(UK) Central Office in line with the Federation expenses policy.

Applications for the post, including a CV and one-page covering letter outlining your suitability for the post should be submitted to Policy Officer (policy.officer@mrcpuk.org) by 10 January 2020. All applications will be considered by the Chair of the ESEN Examining Board.

The next meeting of the Board will take place on 23-24 April 2020 at the Royal College of Physicians of London.
