

Appointment: Trainee Member on MRCP(UK) Scenario Writing Group (Acute Medicine)

The Federation of Royal Colleges of Physicians of the UK is seeking to appoint one new Trainee member to the MRCP(UK) Scenario Writing Group (SWG), which is responsible for producing new scenarios for stations 2 and 4 of the PACES Examination. We are looking to appoint a Trainee in Acute Medicine.

Successful applicants will attend be expected to generate station 2 and 4 scenarios as directed by the Chair of the SWG and the MRCP(UK) Scenarios Editorial Committee (SEC) (as well as any new format scenarios being developed in the future); ensure the academic objectives in terms of scenario writing and producing assessment materials are met; assist in any review of the scenario writing process to ensure sufficient scenarios of quality are produced; and keep abreast of developments in the world of medical education and medical practice ensuring the assessment material remains up-to-date and relevant to the curriculum and meets the standards required by the General Medical Council (GMC).

Applicants will be expected to attend meetings and participate in training as required. This includes attending the next training day on Tuesday 13th November 2018 at the Royal College of Physicians, London from 10.30am–5pm.

Applicants should meet the following criteria to be eligible to apply:

- Hold the MRCP(UK) or an equivalent postgraduate diploma
- Hold a Trainee position in Acute Medicine
- Be registered with a licence to practice and in good standing on the GMC register
- Be up-to-date as appropriate with relevant national guidelines, CPD requirements, employer's equality and diversity training and appraisal process
- Be able to attend the meetings of the SWG (two meetings annually: one held in Cheshire and one in London) and take on work between the meetings.

This is a non-salaried position, although all reasonable expenses and travel costs incurred in travelling to meetings will be met by MRCP(UK) Central Office in line with the Federation expenses policy. The Federation awards CPD credits for participation in scenario writing activities.

The tenure of Trainee appointments it is three years, however this will terminate upon completion of specialist training or appointment as a Consultant. Subject to mutual agreement with the Chair individual tenure may be extended by up to a maximum of five years to ensure orderly succession planning. Attendance at meetings is monitored and members may be asked to step down if they fail to attend regularly.

If you would like to apply for this role please send a one-page covering letter outlining your suitability for the post and an up-to-date CV to Kate Fitzpatrick at station2and4@mrcpuk.org. The closing date for applications is Friday 20 April 2018.
